

End of Term Letter from The Chair of The New Guild Trust

To Every Member of The New Guild Trust,

It's my pleasure to write to you all at Christmas as we reach the end of another most challenging year as a nation in a world of turmoil, it has been an honour to work with our schools striving to provide the best education possible for every child.

On behalf of the trustees, thank you to all the staff for your ongoing dedication to high achievement in education and the highest level of care that you give everyday. Your commitment and ingenuity to ensure learning continues and engaging for our children never ceases to amaze me.

Thank you to our local governors for the time you give selflessly as volunteers to support our school leaders to ensure the best for the schools and their local communities.

Thank you to every parent and carer for working together with your school to do your best to support learning at home and for making sure your child is in school everyday and ready to learn.

Most of all, thank you to all of our children for showing us all how to be resilient and never give in, to enjoy hard-work when it means you're learning and definitely how to find ways to smile everyday.

May I wish you all a peaceful Christmas and all the very best for the new year ahead.

Yours Sincerely,

Louise Eagle

(Chair of Trustees
The New Guild Trust)
